

– H.1 –

Sampling of Faculty/Staff
Research/Scholarly, Public/Community Service Activities
Academic Year 2009-2010

- Linda DeFelice, was been accepted to participate in TEDxNJLibraries: Culture and Community at Princeton Public Library.
- Chara Doyle was awarded the Minority Junior Faculty Award/Grant in the amount of $5,000 from the Christian R. & Mary F. Lindback Foundation for her project entitled, "A Sociological Study: Assessing the Historical and Political Shifts in American Society that have Resulted in the Election of the first African American President."
- Lori Joyce's essay, "Don Quixote's Influence on Mark Twain's a Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court" is now in a published book, Don Quixote, the First Four Hundred Years, published in conjunction with Hofstra University and Universidad de San Marcos. Ms. Joyce also launched and edited Gloucester County College's presence on the National Gallery of Writing site that celebrates writing in all forms. This site was sponsored by the National Council of Teachers of English.
- Robert Freeman sponsored two GCC teams of students to compete in the Seventh Annual Garden State Undergraduate Mathematics Conference and they placed in the top 50% of all New Jersey 2- and 4- year colleges and universities.
- Ed LaBelle is working on a Research Grant from the National Institutes of Health in Bethesda, MD. This grant funded about 6 weeks of research last summer conducted at the University of Pennsylvania and involved the study of the effect of endothelin on the production of lyso-phosphatidic acid in cultured human bladder endothelial cells.
- Brenden Rickards served as a Science Fair Judge for the Coriell Science and Engineering Fair for 6th-12th graders for many different science and engineering studies. Mr. Rickards was also an ad hoc reviewer for 2 textbooks: Visualizing Biology text and Biology: The Network of Life text.

– H.2 –

A Sampling of GCC's
Public/Community Service Activities
Academic Year 2009-2010

Gloucester County College continues to serve as a hub for numerous county-wide public service activities, including but not limited to:

- April Art Gallery exhibition featuring artwork by Daniel Chard – and subsequent fundraiser to benefit the GCC Foundation and John Chard Scholarship Fund.
- GCC's Anime Club hosted its first Annual Anime Con in January which netted $4,080. Proceeds generated from this event were donated to Doctors Without Borders to assist with relief in Haiti, and to F.A.C.E.S. (Families for Autistic Children Education & Support), a non-profit organization dedicated to education and support of children with Autism and their families.
- GCC's Student Government Association raised $2,000 for Doctors Without Borders which provided assistance for Haiti Relief.
- The Student Government Association provided 19 needy families with gift cards for holiday food and 40 children with Easter baskets, and the SGA successfully hosted a Giving Tree where they provided 16 needy families and 31 children with three or more toys each for the holidays.
- Other SGA fundraisers netted over $500 for the Mother's Matter Collection, $475 on Lee National Denim Day and $775 on Pink Day for breast cancer research.
- During the Annual Delta Epsilon Chi Conference in New York city, GCC's DECA Club students won the competition in the area of International Business and Finance.
- At GCC's Annual Food Drive over 1300 lbs of food was collected.
- The Center for People in Transition celebrated 25 Years of Service and has provided assistance to 4,800 Displaced Homemakers and 16,800 others.